Press Release

Hernan M. Organvidez is Named Chief of Police for City of Doral

Doral, FL – Doral's City Manager has named Hernan M. Organvidez as the new Chief of the Doral Police Department. Chief Organvidez will join the Doral team on March 31, 2018. The date for the swearing-in ceremony will be announced at a later date.

Mr. Organvidez brings 32 years of comprehensive law enforcement experience working for Miami-Dade County. He was also instrumental with starting the City of Doral Police Department. He has held the ranks of Officer/Detective, Sergeant, Lieutenant, Captain/Executive Officer, Major, and Chief of South Operations Division. Most recently, he was employed in the private sector by Ando Consulting, Inc. and continued to provide advisory services and security assessments for private and public businesses.

Mr. Organvidez has a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice Administration from Florida International University. He is the first Police Officer from the City of Doral to graduate from the FBI's National Academy and holds a certificate from the University of Miami Leadership Institute.

"I am extremely proud to be bringing Chief Organvidez onboard to lead our force in providing the utmost level of safety and service to our great community," said City Manager, Edward Rojas. "His vast experience and knowledge will undoubtedly lead our exceptional police department into many future successes."

The City of Doral Police Department includes a great group of professionals and Chief Organvidez's work contributions and experience will add to the success of the department's future. In his new position, the Chief will oversee 130 sworn officers and 46 civilian employees, with an annual budget of 21 million.

Doral Police Department 10th Anniversary

On July 14th, 2018, the City of Doral community celebrated the 10th Year Anniversary of the Doral Police Department. To honor this important milestone, the Mayor and Council, administration, police command staff and residents came together at the 10 Year Anniversary Celebration event at the Doral Police Training and Community Center (former Doral Police Substation).

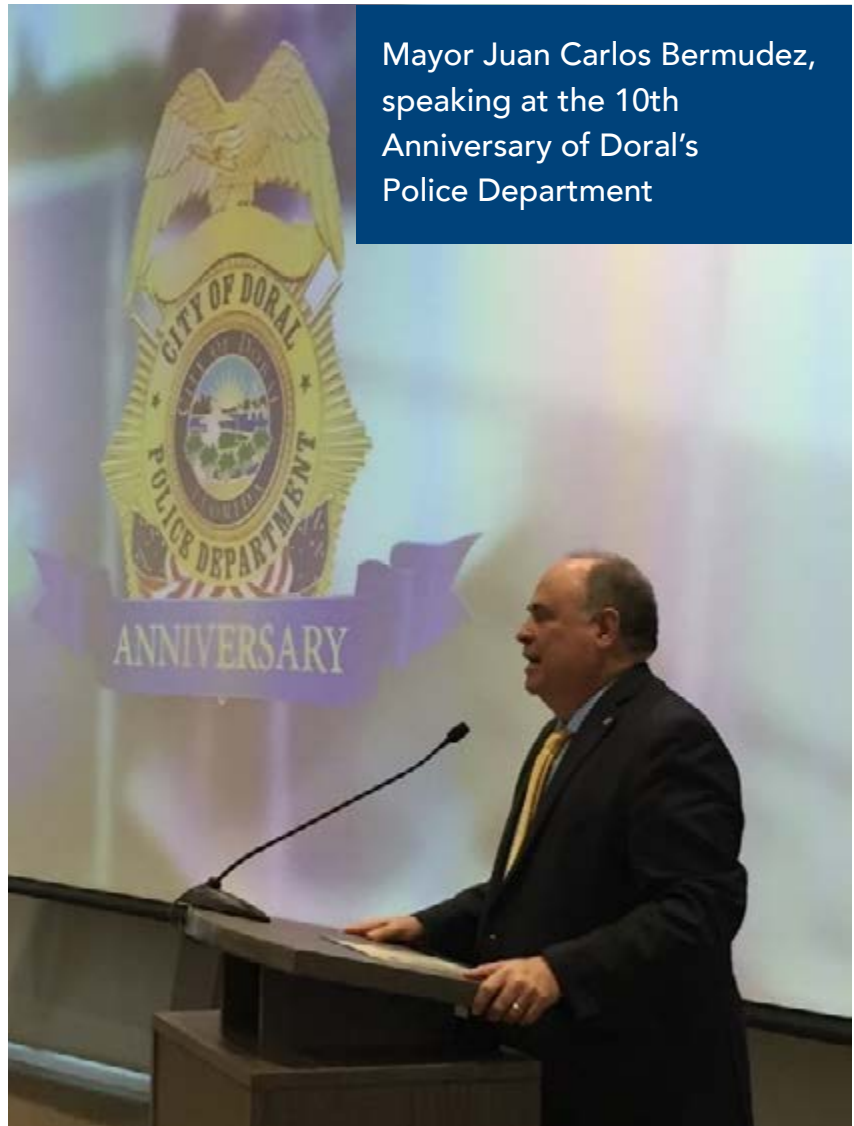

The festivity honored the past decade of service from the brave men and women of the Doral Police Department who have diligently and honorably kept our community safe. The special ceremony debuted a special video presentation 10 Year Anniversary of the Doral Police Department - YouTube, highlighting how the department came to be and its many successes throughout the years, as well included anniversary messages from several elected officials and celebrities like Willy Chirino and David Beckham. Attendees also enjoyed a photography exhibit, food, live music, and police demonstrations.
